

Hillhurst United Church Pot Luck Poem

Circle the 1st Sunday of every month in red

Now don't be late or stay in bed!

For Pot Luck lunches are "radical" and fun

And meant for each and everyone!

"What to bring?" you may say

We'll fill you in on the easy way!

To start it off your dish should be

Enough to feed your family

Some things that you might wish to make,

A casserole, a chocolate cake,

Some chicken wings, a platter of cheese,

A tray of fruit is sure to please

The choices are many, the limitations few

It's Pot Luck, so it's up to you!

The Pot Luck Crew will greet you

And assist you with your dish

And then with you, they will be

Worshiping in the Sanctuary

Hillhurst United Church Pot Luck Poem

When the lunch is over,
And it's time to bid adieu
Please take home your 'empties'
And not leave them for the crew

Three cheers for all who participate
For "unwrapped" lunches which are really great!
It makes us smile to know that you'd
Share the gift of Hospitality through food!

Poem written by Sharon Higgins